

GPS data in the geodatabase with Trimble GPS Analyst

The Trimble GPS Analyst extension allows you to

- a) store GPS data directly in the geodatabase
- b) store estimated accuracy values for GPS positions and features
- c) validate features based on specified accuracy requirements and
- d) rebuild features as needed.

Please see this article in the GDB Basics for more detail.